ACADEMICS

THE POLICY MAKERS

The Board of Education makes important decisions in the maintaining of our school district. This year rising costs forced the School Board to make drastic cuts in our educational system. Cuts included supplies to textbooks, learning equipment, and special educational cuts. But the cuts that caused the most controversy, were the cuts on our athletics. The Board was forced to cut all the Winter sports except basketball, volleyball, and wrestling. With this budget passed, few sports will be continued unless state aid is received or the participants pay the costs themselves.

This year our own school has gone under some changes as well. We discontinued the grade centers and are going with what is referred to as the traditional system. Three assistant principals are now handling the following responsibilities this year: Miss Austin, scheduling, curriculum, counseling; Mr. Bonacci attendance, and Mr. Morehead, discipline. Also this year, students were assigned alphabetically to counselors rather than by their grade.

Lower Right: Assistant principal in charge of attendance, Mr. Bonacci.

The kitchen staff plays an important role in the preparation of the school lunches. The cooks are here early each morning to make sure an adequate supply of luncheon food is available. Every day features of the cafeteria include cheeseburgers, submarine sandwiches, doughnuts, and numerous other tempting tantalizations.

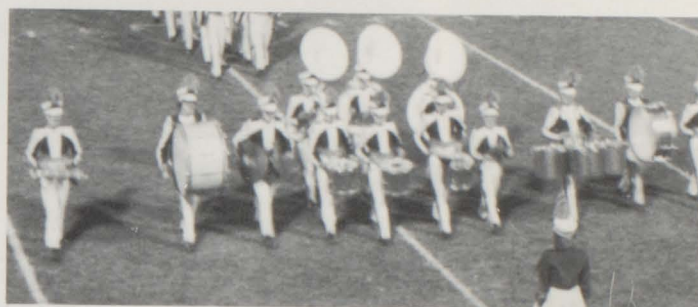

... AND THE BAND PLAYED ON!

The 1979-80 P.H.N. Marching Band began its season one week before school started at a band camp in northern Michigan. At band camp the students developed a marching style unique to the Port Huron area. Throughout the many weeks of diligent practice during marching season, the band strived under the leadership of Mr. Schwalm, to perfect a show that would entertain the public and develop a sense of pride within the band and student body.

All of the band's hard work led them to their first competition in Toledo, Ohio. They didn't do as well as they hoped to but they learned techniques that improved their marching style. On Oct. 16, 1979, the band competed in District Competition and received a first Division (A) rating.

The Marching Band has had a successful marching season!

BOWLING CLUB

The Port Huron Northern High School's Bowling Club is the school's oldest continuing club and this year's only active club. They meet every Monday at 4 at the Port Huron Lanes. Bowling pro Jack Hurst and teacher Richard Miller are the clubs coaches. The club is divided into 10 teams and competes with each other each week. The club has several competitive tournaments that they take part in. An award banquet ends the season in April.

The Student Council at Port Huron Northern is run mainly by the student body at large. Mr. Richard Miller is the Student Council advisor and assists the students in their activities throughout the year.

Our Mardi Gras this year was put on by Leslie Assaf and Laurie Truske. The assembly and dance along with the many activities were a success. Rich Cansfield was our first semester president and did a very good job. The second semester president was Mary MacTaggart. Jamie Ross held the position of vice-president both semesters.

The second semester Council had many responsibilities to fulfill, also, starting with the Snow Extravaganza winter activities and leading right into the magazine sale. We also have a blood drive and ecology day each year.

"The Student Council members have done a super job this year in all of their activities. A special thanks to Mr. Richard Miller for his assistance, guidance and dedication throughout the years."

SING ON FOR NORTHERN HIGH SCHOOL

The PHN choirs held their annual Christmas concert at McMorran and performed during an assembly for the school. Working equally as hard, the choirs prepared a spring concert. The three choirs (Acappella, Chorale, Freshman) are lead by director Mr. Noranger. The chorale topped off the year with a trip to Mexico.

A STITCH

IN TIME

Creative needlework deals with a wide variety of fiber and stitchery techniques such as rug hooking, quilting, trapunto, Russian punch needle, and Seminole Indian patchwork.

Miss Galoi is developed in all of these skills and takes and teaches a number of these classes.

BODIES

Physical education should provide opportunities for development of the student. Each student should develop physically, mentally, socially and emotionally toward the general aspects of a healthy and a fulfilled life.

Retailing prepares students for CO-OP work in a distributive occupation. Students learn various techniques in advertising and window displays. Students also learn how to fill out job applications and partake in job interviews. Students are then recommended to the CO-OP coordinator for job placement.

ARTISTS

In Art 1 the student is introduced to basic structures with the visual arts. Project material covers drawing, painting, printing, forming, and art literature. After completion, Art 1 can be used as a prerequisite to other specific art classes such as ceramics, drawing and painting, jewelry, or commercial design.

KEYS TO SUCCESS

Typing is an excellent course for the college bound student. Speed and accuracy is stressed. Realistic goals are set for each practice, giving meaning and direction to the work of the student.

THE QUICK WAY

Basic Foods is an introductory course in foods and nutrition emphasis is placed on the human need for nutrition and on food supplying the necessary nutrients. Students prepare foods using basic cooking techniques and a variety of kitchen utensils and appliances. They learn the use of kitchen equipment and practice kitchen safety.

STENO BLOCK- ADES

In this course, students survey office job skills and are drilled to improve any weak areas. Such topics as human relations, problems on the job, and terminating employment are also discussed.

A START OUTTA LIFE

Auto Mechanics I consists of the study of the automotive electrical system, internal combustion engine, transmission, differential brake system, and steering components. After successful completion of this course, one may go on to an advanced program in this area.

SPRECHEN SIE DEUTSCH?

Northern's German is, if nothing else, unique. First year is mainly a traditional course, with emphasis on speaking and understanding. Second year uses a "modified self-pacing" approach. The third and fourth years are individualized, making it possible to offer several different courses at that level. This individualized program helps prepare the students for college, in that they must study to reach long range goals, not for day to day goals.

Hola, Amigos. Not only is this a nice greeting in Spanish, but it happens to be the title of a brand new textbook, published this very same year. We have it at Northern and it is doing a super job. The pace is fast and enjoyable. No wasted motion; it's all ahead full speed. These beginning students are pursuing a skill that could be used the rest of their lives. Down which exotic lane will this language steer them?

¿Habla usted Español?

JE PARLE FRANÇAIS

Northern's unique French classes are sprinkled with fun, food, and fraternity. First year "cherubs" compete daily in the tension filled "open bank." The entrance kiosk provides a changing source of knowledge and déjà vu to both present students and to those former students who pass by.

While second year "seraphims" tackle new verb tenses with great chagrin they never lose their enjoyment of instant oral recall still provided by the "banque ouverte." Word games such as scrabble and board review more seriously pervade the second level.

The creme de la creme, the third year independent study students, plus the addition of a few exchange students, provide the necessary interchange for a most volatile, enjoyable, and comprehensive learning atmosphere.

To all us "grenouilles," our sojourn with this Romance language will never leave us with an end. To us it is just "Au Revoir."

PHN'S GREATEST ROCK

Mr. Robert Trapp, along with several of his speech and broadcasting students, operate Port Huron Northern's school radio station, WORW. Students in the broadcasting class work towards their FCC third class license and hold managing positions on the staff. Many students from WORW have gone on and become successful in the communications field. WORW is an educational non-commercial station operating on your 92 FM dial.

FM

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

The Compass is Port Huron Northern's school newspaper. In class, about a month is spent preparing each issue of the paper. The Compass staff consists of a managing and assistant managing editor. There is also an advertising manager, art director, chief and assistant photographers and a number of reporters. Each work together to bring you wonderously witty words from a "woomful of wombats."

The first game of the year proved to be an upset for the Huskie team, Marysville beating us by 1 point. This upset did not deter later performances, however, the Huskies won the three following contests with L'Anse Creuse North, Mt. Clemens, and Port Huron High without so much as a field goal.

Coach Jim Bates said "We ended the season great. We broke alot of defensive records this year. Our team was the best defensive team in the league."

Cross Country

Cross Country at Port Huron Northern during the 1979 season reached one exciting climax after another. The Husky Harriers ran through the entire season without a loss, tie, or blemish on their 17-0 record. As a result of that undefeated season, the Northern Cross Country team captured City, Eastern Michigan League titles and returned to the state finals for a second successive year. Memorable moments came after PHN defeated Mt. Clemens for the first time in six years and busted Sterling Hts. Stevenson by 1 point for the league title.

Outstanding individual performances were turned in by Craig Dickinson, all city, all county, all league and all state. Northern's three seniors, Mike Heisler, Phil Papes and Rick Smith also had an outstanding year, culminating with four runners in the top 20 at the state regional meet. The rest of Northern's Varsity runners included juniors Paul Bonner, Chris Pearson; freshmen Eric Hayden, and Ross Catalina. Mary O'Sullivan, one of the two girls on Northern's Cross Country team capped an outstanding with a 2nd place finish in the EML meet

BOYS GOLF

The golf had a terrific season. They were co-champions in the E.M.L. tournament in Burning Tree. They won the city championship for the 7th consecutive year at Black River Country Club. They came in 2nd at the regionals, to qualify for the state at Oakland University Course, and they were runner-up for the winner's circle at the state competition at Pine View Golf Club, Kalamazoo.

Rich Cansfield, average 39.4, was named all E.M.L., all area and all city. He was 2nd Team all tourney at the E.M.L. tournament. He had the 4th best score in the state meet and was the longest driver on the team.

James Wilhelm, average 39.6, was named all E.M.L., all area, and all city. He was 1st Team all tourney at the E.M.L. tournament and had the best score at the regionals. He shot the best score of any sophomore in the state.

Scott Adams, average 41, was named 1st Team all tourney at the E.M.L. tournament. He became a "School Star of the Week" by the Times Herald along with Rich and Jim.

Jeff Thomson, average 41.6, was named all city. He's probably the best golfer and band drummer combination in the state!

Brian Schulz, average 42.7, was the only left-handed golfer on the team. He made the team a well-rounded one.

Coach Senn says, "I was blessed with talent; I'm just glad I didn't mishandle it. It was a great year and it gives next year's team something to shoot at!"

VARSITY BASKETBALL 1979-80

Although short on height, the PHN varsity team proved they could run with the best in the Eastern Michigan League. Led by 6'1" captain Steve Motte and 6'2" Rich Cansfield, the Huskies had one of the best defensive units in some time. Anchored by 6'1" 210 pounds junior Mike Pedrotti, the Huskies' biggest win was against the Mt. Clemens Bathers. Northern had not defeated them on their own home court since 1971's season. However, the Hustlin' Huskies exploded for a 61-59 win and moved up a step in the standings. Senior Steve Motte joined the Huskie elite as he became one of a few to score 30 points in one contest. Rounding out the senior members are 6'2" Paul Manz, leading assist man Kent Clark, and center David Goetze.

"Improvement" was the goal of the J.V. basketball team this year. The two areas of improvement that we were concerned with were individual and team. A couple of positive influences on our attempts at our goal were

1. Player turnout (54 try-outs)
2. Player attitude
3. Player enthusiasm
4. Player coachability

Along with positive influences are always negative influences. The negative aspects in our basketball program are:

1. No intermediate basketball program.
2. No freshman basketball program.
3. Limited facilities, (In order to have use of the full court they had to practice at 6:30 in the morning.)

"My opinion of this year's J.V. team at this point, half way through the season, is that our progress is satisfactory. This is true only if our players realize that we have got a long way to go to be consistent."

— Coach Weymouth

ANOTHER GREAT YEAR FOR VARSITY SOFTBALL

It seemed impossible for Northern's girls varsity softball team to top their highly successful 1978 season, but that is just what they did. Once again entering the prestigious Royal Oak Shrine Invitational Tournament, they competed against 32 teams in a double elimination battle, from which they emerged victorious. They also repeated as E.M.L., City, and District champions; and Regional runner-ups. The team finished fifth in the state.

Great individual effort was shown as five girls were named All E.M.L. and All Blue-Water Area. They were: Helene Schultz, Terri Davey, Lisa Marcero, Michelle Phillips, and Kelly Moore. Tara Pierson, Mary Conlan, and Sue Wine received honorable mention. In addition, Terri and Michelle were named to the Royal Oak Shrine Tournament All-Star team along with Helene, who was also named the tourney's M.V.P.

After compiling a career pitching record of 73-12, Helene Schultz, a four-year letter winner in three sports and outstanding girl athlete for the class of '79, was named All-State by the Detroit News. Her season batting average of .627 was the best among the All-Staters.

"The 26-2 record and the four championships were fantastic; but it was the fun, friends and fellowship that made the season a success." — Coach Dias

JUNIOR VARSITY BOY'S TENNIS

The Junior Varsity Tennis team had another outstanding season, in both league and non-league play. The team finished the season with an overall record of 11 wins and only 1 loss. They were dual-match co-champions of the league, along with Grosse Pointe South, and they finished second in the EML Tournament. The J. V.'s most impressive dual-match wins this year were over East Detroit, Stevenson and L'Anse Creuse North. In these matches the netters did not lose any sets and did not yield any team points. Many of this year's J. V. players were able to gain some valuable experience for the future by playing in some varsity matches. This was a great opportunity for the younger players and should be most helpful to the future teams at Port Huron Northern.

FACULTY

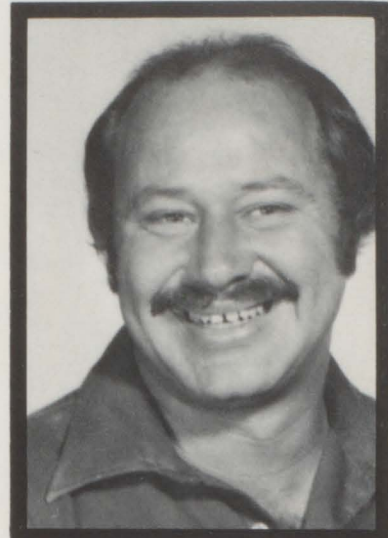

WHAT'S YOUR EXCUSE NOW?

Would you believe I don't have my homework because I left all my books on the golden sands of Daytona Beach, Florida, during spring break? Would you believe I was late because my bus had a bomb scare, and was then held up by Iranian demonstrators who wanted us for hostages?

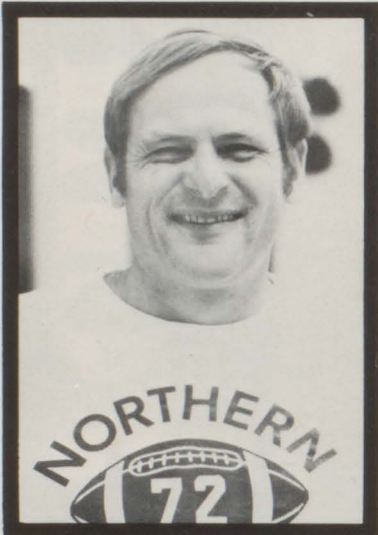

Are today's students still handing out far-fetched excuses to their all too trusting teachers? The faculty members of PHN were asked to submit the best excuse spattered to them by some nervous student who thought he'd try to pull one over on an unsuspecting teacher. For the next 8 pages, you will read some of these zany excuses. Keep in mind that temporary insanity would be a possible plea on the student's behalf!

Mr. Guy Bailey was told one that any rational individual would find hard to believe. "My mother was defrosting the refrigerator. She placed the meat on the table where I was working, and the frost stuck to my paper. By the time I realized my paper was missing, it was frozen to the meat. The defrosted paper was ruined, so I had to throw it away. (I have to admit, it's different!)"

Mr. Richard Baker, when he was attending the parking lot, once heard a car squeal out. When questioned the owner said, "I'm sorry, but my foot just slipped off of the clutch."

Mr. Jim Bates, athletic dept., "I had to go home to help my parents build our garage. I was planning to come back 5th hour, but was held up by extra work." (sure ya were, kid!)"

Mrs. Nancy Bitzinger told us about a boy in her home-room whom she told to stay after school for excessive tardiness. He begged to be let off, giving the excuse: "My girl friend just had a baby and I have to go the hospital to visit her." (He probably didn't even have a girlfriend!)"

Mr. Thomas Blackney, science dept., heard a student say, "I was late because I had to finish my smoke — I just bought the new millimeters longer brand." (cough cough)"

Mr. Eugene Blynn, math dept., was told, "It was foggy on the way to school this morning and when I rolled down my window to see outside, my paper blew out." (okay —)"

Mr. Robert Clark, history dept., was told, "I was late beause someone stole my pants in gym class and I had to wait until my mom brought me another pair."

Mr. Sam Coughenour, POD says he always hears, "I just don't have time. I've got to work you know!"

Mr. Ronald Davey, math dept., hears the "old faithful" of excuses, "I don't have my homework paper because my puppy wet on it."(next!)

Mr. Michael Dias, softball coach, once heard, "I was late for the game because I left my uniform in the dryer." (This girl really must have had her mind on the game!)

Mr. James Dickey was not present during our poll, but his sub gave us a good one! "Some guys were being punished for smoking non-cigerettes. They denied the charge against them. When asked to explain why their eyes were so bloodshot, they answered, "When we were driving around we had the windows down and the exhaust must have gotten inside the car."

Mr. Michael Dineen, made us wonder the mental age of his students when he told us that one of his pupils told him "My babysitter ripped my assignment." (pretty mean babysitter!)

Mrs. Florence, English dept., has been given the same old song and dance. Her students tell her, "I had so much homework in all my classes that I decided not to do yours." (pretty big of them!)

Miss Laura Foster told us an unbelievable story that later turned out to be true. "I put my books in the closet and the house burned down." (it's time all books came out of the closet!)

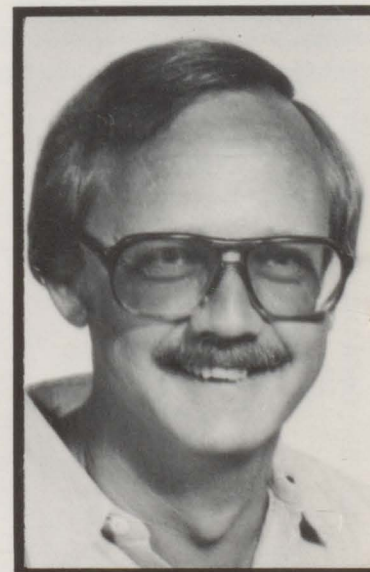

Miss Diane Fugil, athletics dept., was told, "I went home to get my gym clothes, and on the way back my car ran out of gas." (this must've been on a "run" day, eh girls?)

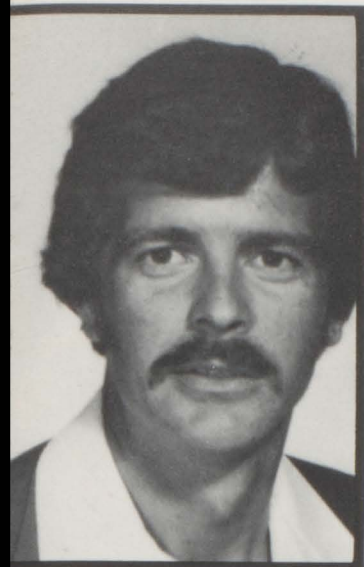

Miss Donna Galoit, creative needlework, asked her student why she didn't bring her project in to work on it. The excuse? Simple. "I left it home so my mother could work on it." (thank heaven for mothers!)

Mr. Fred Green had a student with a colorful imagination. He was told, "My little brother thought my paper was a coloring book."

Mr. Thomas Hamilton, history dept., told us that his students didn't even bother with any excuses. They just told him, "Not now, I'm busy!" (who isn't these days???)

Mr. Dan Hanton had a student who believed in blaming someone else to save his own skin. This student looked out for #1 by telling Mr. Hanton, "I was late because Mr. Weymouth wanted me to find the deer he missed!!"(he must have meant he was in the woods, right??)

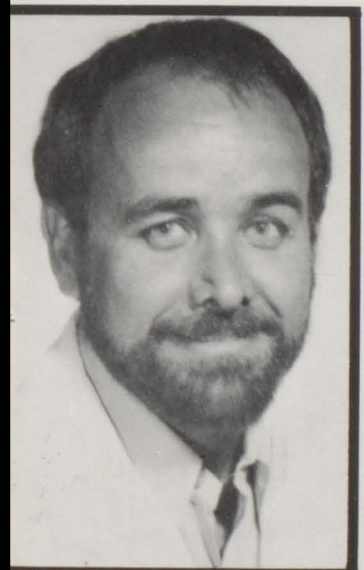

Mr. Irvin Hayward found a student who found a brighter side to getting married. His excuse? "I won't have my paper tomorrow because I'm getting married." (now that's original)

Mr. Howard Heidemann, science dept., gave us almost as bad of a one as we made-up at the beginning of this section. Instead of leaving his paper at Daytona Beach, some student told Mr. Heidemann, "I don't have my paper because I left it in Nebraska after our vacation there."

Mr. Paul Johnson's student didn't blame somebody else for his own tardiness, instead he blamed Mr. Johnson himself. "I was late because I was picking up trays for you in the cafeteria."(that's understandable)

Mr. Larry Klink had a student tell him, "I had it all done, but my mom put it in the washing machine." (that's pretty cold-blooded, blaming your own mother)

Miss Patricia Knapp was being taken advantage of because she's such a softy for young love. She was actually told, "I was late because my braces got caught on my boyfriend's braces!"

Mr. Robert Mattson, one of our counselors, was once told by a student, "I was late because I lost my schedule." (this sounds like the excuse of a freshman — it better be anyway!)

Mrs. Elaine McLoud's student seemed to play dumb. He used the "cute-but-dumb" approach with the quick thought-up excuse of ... " — What homework? Did we have homework?" (snicker snicker)

Mr. Harold Miller, science dept., was innocently told, "The family dog ate up my assignment." (I bet if it were dissected no trace of paper would be found!)

Mr. Larry Miller was given a rather creative excuse. A student of his told him, "I didn't do my homework because I was kidnapped." (If it can happen to Patty Hearst, it can happen to anybody, right? WRONG!)

Mr. Richard Miller, Student Council Advisor, was told, "Our dog and cat had a fight and my papers were all destroyed." (they must have really been "scrapping" it out! Get It? sorry)

Mrs. Sandra Miller, math dept., was told, "My locker partner stole my homework." (c'mon, if ya can't trust your locker partner, who's left to trust??)

Mr. William Morrison, science dept., received the ole, "My dog ate it after I put it away." (let's x-ray the mutt!)

Miss Mary Neil, math dept., received this flimsy excuse not from a student, but from a parent. "I never could do math, so I assume my son/daughter can't do it either." (intelligence IS hereditary, but effort must enter into it somewhere)

Miss Iris Nelson, science dept., was told "I can't type my blood type because I have a bad cold." (how very thoughtful)

Mr. Thomas Noranger, choir dept., was told by a vacation-minded student, "I can't sing today because I twisted my ankle." (he must sing all the low notes! Get it? Ha! Ha!)

Mr. James (Herr) Norman, German teacher, was told, "... You're not going to believe this but my mother took it to Chicago." (sure, blame good ole mom; you're right, I don't believe it!)

Mr. Glen Pike, history & psychology dept., was told by an obviously psychologically confused student, "Mr. Pike, I can't take the test today because, you see, I thought the test was yesterday, but I wasn't here yesterday so I didn't know you had changed the test day for today." (nice try, but you can't psych-out a psychology teacher)

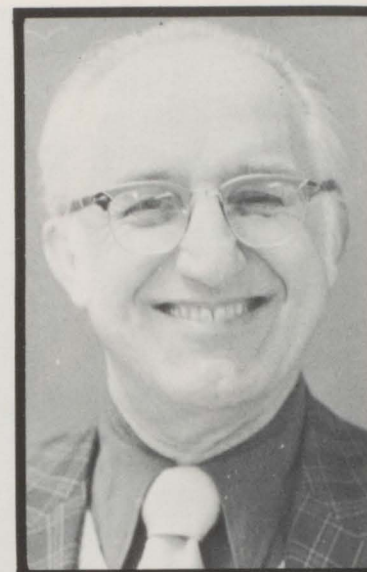

Mr. Dominyo Ruiz was told on the second-to-the-last day of school in June, "I was late because I forgot the combination to my locker." (you know the locker he had, the one with the combination scratched in the paint.)

Mr. Kevin Senn was told by some spoiled cherub, "My dad thought it was a masterpiece so he took it to work with him." (where'd he work? the National Gallery of Art? nice try)

Mr. George Singer's student must have believed in the old "honesty is the best policy" slogan. He said, "I did it, honest! But I forgot it at home." (so much for that policy)

Mr. Cyril Smith, was given the brush-off for an excuse. He says he's always told, "I just don't have the time." (short, sweet, and to the point; what more could anybody ask?)

Mr. Richard Talladay, math dept., was told by some cruiser, "While we were riding around town in my car, my friend shredded my paper and threw it out the window." (some friend)

Mr. David Tracy was told a whopper of an excuse. Listen to this ... "My goldfish ate it!" (Great!, what was his name? Moby Goldfish? uh-huh, and I suppose he has fangs, too)

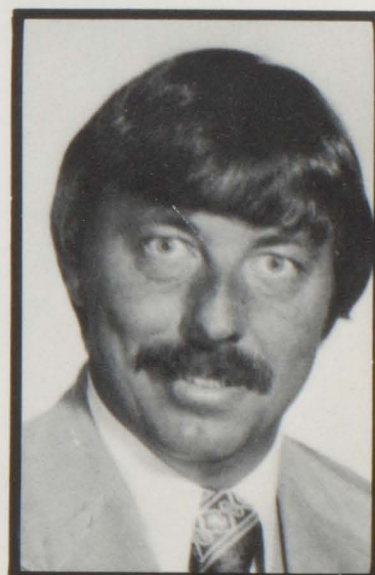

Mr. Joseph Vettese received an excuse from a juvenile delinquent who said, "I didn't do my homework because I was in jail." (of course Mr. Vettese didn't argue for fear of being stabbed by a pencil or something afterwards — just kidding)

Mrs. Barbara Wismer, Librarian, was told a year after losing a library book, "Hey, I found my library book! You know, the one I lost last year." When asked where the book was found, the student replied, "I found it between the walls in the living room. It must have fallen through the hole in my bedroom." (SURE)

Miss Barbra Wheatley, counselor, was told "I'm late because I forgot to turn my clocks back." Nice try, But the student outfoxed himself. This would have made him one hour earlier! (think about it)

Mr. Peter Woods heard an excuse which is very rare because many of us don't dare to say it. Or maybe the student had the dreaded "quitteritus" in his blood. He told Mr. Woods, "I just can't think of anymore excuses!!" (wonder how many excuses he had used before???)

Mr. James Young was given an excuse from a possible sadist. He says, "I was late because I was stuck behind a funeral." (quit complaining, you could've been the "Guest of Honor", so to speak.)

The other PHN faculty members have probably heard the same excuses, except they were too shy to tell us about them. After reading this section, one will probably ask himself, "Who believes this junk, anyway?" Well don't be fooled. Teachers don't either. It's all a conspiracy between them. They just want to hear what you have to say. So don't ever disappoint them. Start having an excuse for everything you do ... even if it's wrong!

The remaining faculty members are as follows: Mr. Ahearn; Mr. Aikins; Mr. Armstrong; Miss Cantu; Miss Drewyore; Mr. Duncan; Mr. Esterline; Mr. Fotchman; Mr. Gable; Mrs. Goldsworth; Mr. Hobbs; Mr. C. Johnson; Mrs. Nancy Johnson; Mrs. LaBeau; Ms. Mackie; Miss Meyer; Mrs. Pamela Mosier; Mr. D. Pearson; Miss Perry; Mrs. Renner; Mrs. Rogers; Mr. Ryskewecz; Mr. Schwalm; Mrs. Smith; Mr. Taggart; Mr. Tinsley; Mr. Trapp; Mr. Weymouth; Mr. White; Mr. G. Young; Mrs. Jones (librarian); Mr. Soule (Counselor); Mr. Howard Buckoski (Counselor); Mrs. Goodrich (Counselor); Mr. Benedict.

THE SPIRIT STAFF: EVERY WHICH WAY BUT LOOSE

Introducing the Port Huron Northern Spirit staff of 1980! Who are they? (Good question.) Believe it or not, they are the commoners of PHN just like you. The only difference between them and you is that they are "into" book production and copy rules and all that other stuff they know (Of course, there is one other small difference: they signed up for the class and you didn't, but let's assume you already know that part). How are they organized? (Another fine question.) They are made up of about 16 students and one "head honcho" who keeps the pace of progress up to a fast waltz (so to speak). What does this staff actually do? (Boy! You're really on your toes now!) Instead of curling up with a book, they curl up with a bunch of layouts in triplicate, and create the pages that will appear in your yearbook. Is there anyway that I could be a member of this exciting staff, TOO? Well, there is a slight chance. Okay, more than a slight chance. All you have to do is sign up for SPIRIT then fill out an application for the editor to approve (which he/she will unless you're weird or something). So what do you have to lose? (That's our question.)

Memory is the treasure and guardian of all things.

—MICHAELS

This book was no "piece of cake" to produce, but the SPIRIT staff of 1980 worked hard and did a fantastic job. I would especially like to thank our Advisor, Mrs. Linda Florence, who not only made it through her first year at PHN, but came out on top as well. I would also like to thank Mr. Richard Miller for helping us through our financial difficulties. Also, I would like to thank Jeff Thomson for printing all the color pictures in this book. And to everyone else (and there are lots) who lent a helping hand (or two) to better this book I say, (and truly mean) thank-you because we couldn't have done it alone.

Thanks Again—
LOVE,

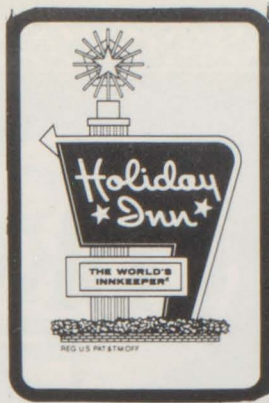

Treasure Van Druemel

And Much Much More!!

Should Your
be different?

By all means your personal senior portrait should be different from everyone else's.

This may mean special lighting, clothing and poses — whatever it takes to capture you at your best.

No assembly line, please!

At our studio we're prepared to put out that special effort to make your senior picture one that "captures the real you," and one that's worthy of this important event in your life!

Call us and see the difference!
